

2014 eucen AUTUMN SEMINAR

*How to develop University Lifelong Learning programmes:
From the needs analysis to the design.*

Dialogue between research and practice

Barcelona, Thursday 06-Friday 07 November 2014

President of EUCEN

Mag. phil. Dr. phil. Andrea WAXENEGGER
University of Graz, Austria

Andrea Waxenegger has been director of the Center for Continuing Education at the University of Graz (Austria) since 2000 and president of EUCEN since 2010.

She has been working for over twenty years in the field of University Continuing Education (UCE) and University Lifelong Learning (ULLL) in research, organisational and programme development, and development of professional networks at national, European and international level.

Her main areas of current activity include: research-based development of ULLL in the field of general education at university level; presentations and workshops at national, European and international level; publications; building and maintaining partnerships and networks at regional, national and European level; development of programmes to further competence of educators and facilitators working in the field; policy development and current best practice in ULLL and Learning in Later Life/Intergenerational Learning at European level and in universities in Europe.

<http://autumn2014seminar.eucen.eu>