

2014 eucen AUTUMN SEMINAR

*How to develop University Lifelong Learning programmes:
From the needs analysis to the design.*

Dialogue between research and practice

Barcelona, Thursday 06-Friday 07 November 2014

---

Vice-President of EUCEN

Professor Françoise DE VIRON
Catholique University of Louvain (UCL), Belgium

Françoise de Viron is professor at the Louvain School of Management and Education Sciences. She has been substantially involved with EUCEN for almost a decade, and she was appointed Vice-President of the Association in 2012.

After five years as director of the Continuing Education Unit of UCL, she is currently teaching 'Knowledge Management', 'Training & Education Projects Management', and 'Adult Education research foundation' in two Master degrees: the Business Engineering Master and the Education Sciences Master, which is fully dedicated to adults. Furthermore, she is doing research and action research in the field of Adult Education and University Life Long Learning.

At UCL, de Viron is a member of the Continuing Education Council in charge of the LLL strategy and policy. At a national level, she was from 2004 to 2011 the president of the 'Commission Education Tout au Long de la Vie du Conseil Inter Universitaire Francophone' in charge of the University Lifelong learning issues within French-speaking Belgium.