

2014 eucen AUTUMN SEMINAR

*How to develop University Lifelong Learning programmes:
From the needs analysis to the design.*

Dialogue between research and practice

Barcelona, Thursday 06-Friday 07 November 2014

---

WORKSHOP LEADER

Roberto ROMERO LLOP
Technical University of Valencia

PhD. in Telecommunication Engineering. He is working as a Head of Section of long courses (Masters) in the Lifelong Learning Center of the Technical University of Valencia (CFP-UPV). He has been working as a Continuing Engineering Education Manager and ICT consultant in this Center since 1996.

His professional interests are Management in Continuing Engineering Education and the use of new technologies in adult education. He has been involved in different research projects related to these themes since 1998. Among them, he has been researcher in a national project "University responses to the Lifelong Learning demands".

He has participated in different Networks as SEFI (European Society for Engineering Education) working group for Continuing Engineering Education, and RUEPEC (National University Network for postgraduate and Continuing Education).